A 23-year-old man has been arrested on suspicion of illegally recording a woman in one of London's busiest Tube stations, Scotland Yard has said. Police said the incident took place on Wednesday at Euston station, in the London Borough of Camden. The man, from Hertfordshire, was arrested on suspicion of voyeurism and possession of an article for the purpose of committing an offence under the Sexual Offences Act 2006, Scotland Yard said. He was taken to a north London police station for questioning.

to go to the gym and exercise. I want to get into shape before I start training. OK – so you haven't started, but you want to get into shape? It sounds like you're pretty excited about this. The first thing that you might want to do is track your efforts to make sure you're really on track, rather than setting up some grandiose goal. You could use something like to track calories, fat, and carbs, and make sure that you're moving in the right direction. Then, once you get your baseline, you can get down to some serious training. But first, tell me how much you're going to be working out each week? Other fitness goals You should be focusing on an increase in your fitness, and that requires a focus on your body overall. Here are other reasons why working out might be good for you: Less stress: When we exercise, our body sends out feel-good neurotransmitters to the brain. This is the "reward" that our brain responds to. We can also release endorphins, a hormone that reduces pain in the body. Working out can help make you less stressed out, so that you feel better overall. Sleep better: According to the CDC, most people get somewhere around 7-8 hours of sleep a night f678ea9f9e
